

ALEXANDRIA, VA.

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 11, 1882.

NEARLY ALL the men who fought in the Confederate army are too old now to enter the U. S. army, and but very few of those who were youngsters during the war, such as Dr. Tebbis, who was a page in the Confederate Congress, want to enter it. The chief object of the move recently made in the U. S. Senate was not to give ex-Confederates commissions in the army, but to expunge from the statute books a section of war legislation that cast odium, reproach and disgrace upon all who twenty years ago sympathized with their own section of country. Many republican Senators were not opposed to expunging the obnoxious statute. They thought that as the war had been over for seventeen years, and there might come a time when the country would need all the soldiers she could raise, it would be well enough to gratify the South when it could be done so cheaply, but, as some of their bloody shirt constituents might have found fault with them for voting for the measure, they preferred that it should be adopted by the democrats, assisted by Judge Davis and General Mahone, and were as much surprised when it was defeated by the vote of the latter as were the people he misrepresents.

Mr. Woodford, U. S. Attorney for the district of New York City, has prepared another indictment against General Curtis under the federal law prohibiting employees of the Government from assessing and collecting money from other Government employees. Capt. John Wise is now U. S. Attorney for the eastern district of Virginia. If he will examine the files of the newspapers of Richmond, where he resides, he will have no trouble in finding copies of a circular, with names attached, issued during the last political campaign in the State, that will supply him with all the requisite information for presenting to the grand jury Collector Brady, of Petersburg, Dr. Gilmer, postmaster at Richmond, and other federal officers in the State, for precisely the same offense as that for which Gen. Curtis has been indicted in New York. Virginia is not only in, but, according to the party with which the Captain has recently formed an "allignment," as his leader would express it, was never out of the Union, and what is against the national law in one part of the country should be against it in all other parts.

THE republican and some of the so-called independent news papers of the North are still harping upon the necessity for a dissolution of the solid South, and with patent insincerity, or premeditated silliness, assign as their reason for doing so the ridiculous assertion that the maintenance of the South's political unity gives color to the charge that that unity is the result of fraud, intimidation, ostracism, and bulldozing. The South relatively, is not as politically solid as the North, for even of her few states two of the largest, Virginia and Tennessee, have Republican Governors. Why then should solidarity at the South give color to the charges alluded to, while the same condition at the North is conclusive evidence of a free ballot and a fair count?

BOSS RULE is still in the ascendant in Pennsylvania. Mr. Cameron, by following the example of the late Oakes Ames, and putting the various means at his disposal where they would do the most good, gained a complete victory there yesterday. It is now for the self-asserted powerful independents of that State to say whether or not they will stand the racket. Among the resolutions adopted at the convention was one condemning the use of federal patronage to advance party interest, and yet strange to say a prominent judge in Alabama has just severed his relations with the republican party for the reason that, the administration is disposing of its patronage for the purpose of advancing the interests of that party in his State.

MAJOR TANSILL says "with readjustment I am done and exceedingly regret that I ever had any concern in it or in secession, and for both I have heartily repented and hope to be pardoned." Spoken like a man, and it is hoped that the gallant Major will receive that benefit of the soul said to result from an honest confession. How unlike his recent leader, who not only clings to readjustment but does not regret secession and has no apology to make for it, though, strange to say, he has prohibited Southern men, who were little boys when the war was in progress, from entering the army even in its lowest rank.

MR. SPEAKER KEIFER, in his speech at New York last Tuesday night, said that in his opinion, "this country was never better or purer individually and officially than it is to-day." Then its moral condition in the past must have reached the lowest stage, for it is hardly conceivable that anything could have been worse than the assassination of a President, the reckless rapacity of Cabinet Ministers, the bribery of the national law makers, the corruption of judges, and the licentiousness of the most popular preachers of the land, all of which blacken this year's history of the country.

THE SAVANNAH News says "no protective tariff is needed for Southern manufacturers," and it is right. The natural facilities for all sorts of manufacturing purposes possessed by the South are so superior to those of the North, that were the tariff reduced to a revenue point Northern manufacturers would be induced to remove their "plants" to this section and avail themselves of those facilities in order the more successfully to compete with their foreign rivals. With a low tariff the South's supremacy in the Union would be regained by the next census.

BLACKSBURG COLLEGE has been in the hands of the Mahoneites only a short time, and yet the Montgomery Messenger, published in the same county, says:

"Bad discipline, crude instruction and humbug are rapidly doing their work. And we say plainly that the College is a failure, and always will be until a faculty is placed in charge of it whom the students will respect."

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special Correspondence of the Alex. Gazette.] WASHINGTON, D. C., May 11.—Miss Van Lew, ex-postmaster of Richmond, is again in the city, after an office. Now that Mrs. Dr. Walker has gotten one she thinks there is a better chance for her. The place she wants is that now filled by Mr. Spofford, Congressional Librarian. Gen. Mahone is the man whose active assistance she requires, and she seeks him in and out of season. While riding in a street car the other day she saw Red Syn, the Indian doctor, who has long gray hair and whiskers, and wears a broad brimmed light hat, and supposing him to be the General, whom he does really resemble in some particulars, she seized the bell stop, got out, and approaching him rapidly, did not discover her mistake until it was too late to retake in same car.

It is understood that notwithstanding the action of the republican caucus a large majority of the House Ways and Means Committee are in favor of the total abolition of the internal revenue tax on some articles now subject to that tax, and a great reduction of it in others—whiskey and tobacco; and that they will report a bill to that effect before the close of the session.

Senator Vance has returned from Richmond, where he recently lectured, and yesterday appeared in his seat in the Senate dressed in a light colored summer cassimer. His clothes were at once the object of the special attention and inspection of those of his colleagues with whom he is familiar, and various remarks were heard about "Soloman in all his glory," and "the half had not been told," and suggestions about the propriety of anticipating the season, and of "wetting" and "shooting" the suit referred to, and a scheme was arranged, to be executed later in the day, for calling him to the chair so that all might have a good look at the new suit.

The House Committee on Elections, by a vote of nine to two, Messrs. Davis of Mo., and Helzhoover of Penn., democrats, agreed this morning to report in favor of Love, in the contested election case of Love vs. Wheeler, from Alabama, Love being a greenbacker, and Wheeler a democrat, the famous Gen. Joe Wheeler of the Confederate cavalry.

The action of the republican convention of Pennsylvania yesterday has rendered permanent the split in the republican party of that State. Senator Mitchell and Representative Baines say they will not support the ticket that has been nominated, that the independent republicans will hold a convention on the 24th of June, and that the ticket or nominations will receive the votes of fifty thousand good and true republicans who will no longer submit to boss rule. Should this be the case, and ex-Senator Buckalew be the Democratic nominee for Governor, as he probably will be the chances are that he will be elected, and the Keystone State be restored to Democratic rule.

The Senate District Committee, to whom had been referred Mr. Hawley's resolution respecting the Guitane receipts, determined this morning that they would not consider it, as the Senate of the United States had more important business to look after than the jail regulations of the District of Columbia.

It is reported here that Mr. Montgomery Blair will be the democratic candidate for Congress from his district in Maryland, and that he is probably now the strongest man that can be put up against Mr. Urner, republican, who now represents the district.

The House took up the Geneva award case the first thing this morning and has been on it all day. This arbitration appointed to award damages due by England to America for damages inflicted upon American shipping by the Confederate steamer Alabama, which was fitted out at a British port, made an award of millions in excess of what there were just claims for, and the bill referred to is to determine how to distribute the large surplus.

The Mississippi members of the House say that General Chalmers, in consequence of the lack of support he received from the democrats of the House, and of the new Congressional apportionment in Mississippi by which his district has been made largely republican, has really determined to run as an independent candidate for Congress in that district next fall.

Mr. Paul, who is a member of the House Committee on Elections, when the vote was taken in that committee in the contested case of Bisbee vs. Finley, instead of voting for Bisbee, as stated in this correspondence at the time, did not vote at all, as he was not present when the vote was taken. The report that he voted for Bisbee, who is a republican, doubtless arose from the fact that he usually votes that way.

Notwithstanding the fact that the republican caucus of the House determined that no reduction should be made in the internal revenue tax, it is confidently reasserted by parties interested that the Ways and Means Committee of the House will report a bill for the reduction of that tax at an early day. It is a well known fact that the chief objectors to a reduction in the tax on whiskey and tobacco are the largest manufacturers of those articles.

E. J. Wilkinson was to-day commissioned as Postmaster at Olo, Lumburgh, Va. It is understood that Mr. Beck will make a speech in the Senate to-morrow on the whiskey bill.

The Senate was again to-day engaged in the consideration of the L. Madison Day case, a notice of which appeared in this correspondence yesterday.

Rev. William Munford of the Episcopal Church, formerly Lieut. Col. of the 17th Virginia Infantry, was at the Capitol to-day, looking just as well, though a little grayer, as he did when on picket duty at Fairfax Court House twenty one years ago. He is now the loved and respected rector of a church at Columbus Mississippi.

Mr. John Fossett of Alexandria, has been appointed the Washington ticket agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, and will have his office in the National Hotel building.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times."

Colonel Hillier, Chief of the Irish Constabulary, has resigned.

The story of the bicycle riders, who said they saw the murder of Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke, is not believed.

The British House of Commons adjourned over till Thursday to attend the funeral of Lord Frederick Cavendish.

Nearly all the persons arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the Dublin assassination have been discharged.

A return has been issued showing that on the 3d of May 286 persons were confined in prison under the coercion act.

The Cameron clan had everything its own way at Harrisburg yesterday, and the result was the selection of a stalwart ticket.

A mass meeting of the Irish-American citizens of New York is to be held in the Cooper Union to-morrow to give public expression to the universal abhorrence which the assassination of Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke evoked from all sections of the Irish population.

The Pennsylvania republican State convention yesterday nominated James A. Beaver for Governor, Win Henry Rawle for Judge of the Supreme Court, Charles M. Gross for secretary of internal affairs, Thomas M. Marshall for Congressman at large, and W. T. Davies for lieutenant-governor. Resolutions were adopted advocating protection to American industry, favoring moral political methods, lamenting the death of Gen. Garfield, and fixing certain rules for the regulation of State conventions. The moral part of the platform was received with laughter by many of the delegates.

The Southern Baptist convention met at Greenville, S. C., yesterday. Twenty-five delegates were present from Virginia. Rev. P. H. Mell, of Georgia, was chosen president. Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, and H. K. Ellison, of Richmond, were among the vice-presidents. The report on home missions was read, the amount contributed during the past year to the work being $94,273, exclusive of the contributions of Virginia and four other States. The report of the board of foreign missions was also read, showing receipts for the year of $49,041 and $90,000 worth of property in foreign lands.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

There are several cases of small pox near Warrenton. The disease, says the Solid South, was first introduced by a colored man from Alexandria, and two other persons have since taken it.

Jno. Houston, colored, who killed Abraham Clanton, colored, near Irishburg, Henry county, on the 4th of February last, has been sentenced to 18 years in the penitentiary.

And now comes another suit; this time against the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad by persons claiming $5,000,000 by reason of their unsettled rights in the old Chesapeake and Ohio Company.

There has not been for a long time, such a scarcity of food in the country as at present. In some portions of the State it is being distributed by the County authorities to prevent persons in destitute condition from starving.

It is reported that Mr. Lawrence Tallferro, of King George (republican-democrat), is to be appointed postmaster at Fredericksburg in place of Mr. Pritchard, a native of Fredericksburg, and a republican, who now holds the position.

In January the Commissioners of the Revenue in the State received their land books, but the tax bills having been changed, these old books are rendered valueless, and others are to be supplied to meet the changed tax levy. This is expensive.

At the meeting of the two Auditors and Treasurer held on Tuesday, it is understood that Kendall & Co., fearing litigation in regard to the matter of printing the Riddleberger Bonds demanded $1,000 in advance, whereupon the committee annulled the contract.

The Petersburg branch of the Irish Land League last night adopted resolutions denouncing the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke, and pledging its members to pay their proportionate share of a reward of $100,000 for the arrest of the assassins.

Egypt in a State of Revolution.

Reuter's Telegraph Company have received the following dispatch from Cairo:

"Egypt is in a state of revolution. The ministry, in violation of the organic law, have summoned the Chamber of Notables over the head of the Khedive. Their nominal object is to settle the difference which has arisen between them and the Khedive, but it is considered that the latter's deposition may be regarded as virtually achieved in favor of a government under Arabi Bey, unless immediate intervention occurs."

The Khedive on Tuesday informed the consuls that the Prime Minister Mahmoud Baroudi had insisted on a modification of the decree commencing the sentences of the Circassian officers, had spoken insultingly in regard to the consuls, and had threatened Europeans with violence. Mahmoud Baroudi, however, on receiving the English and French consuls, declared that he merely respectfully asked for a modification of the decree.

It is expected that the Premier will resign. It is reported that the Cabinet has decided to convoke an extra session of the notables to obtain the deposition of the Khedive. It is stated that several consuls have telegraphed to their respective governments to send iron-clads to Alexandria.

The diplomatic agents of Germany, Austria and Italy have received strict instructions to abstain from intervention. The Egyptian ministers have formally assured foreign consuls general that no danger threatens the lives or property of Europeans, but they declare that in the event of Turkish intervention they are resolved to defend their country.

The ministers have promised the foreign representatives that the Khedive's person will be held sacred. The Khedive, at a private audience, declared that he was resolved not to give way at any cost. He said he relied upon material support from England and France, by whose advice he had signed the decree commencing the sentences of the Circassian officers.

General Conference of the M. E. Church South.

The committee on episcopacy of the General Conference of the M. E. Church South, in session at Nashville, Tenn., will report in favor of the election of six new bishops. The committee on itinerancy will present a strong minority report in favor of limiting the office of presiding elder to four years successively.

The case of G. W. Wightman, elder of the South Carolina Conference, deposed from the ministry on the charge of immorality, was remanded for a new trial. The committee on revision non-concurred in the proposition to allow women to be Sunday-School Superintendents, and also in that to strike from the church rolls those who habitually neglect public worship.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPHIC DISPATCHES.

To-day's Congressional Proceedings.

SENATE.

Mr. Beck offered a resolution giving precedence after the appellate court bill, to the House bill extending the bonded period on distilled spirits, when reported. Which was laid over without action.

HOUSE.

Mr. Thurman, of Illinois, from the committee on Education and Labor reported a bill to aid in the support of common schools. It provides that for the next five years there shall be annually appropriated the sum of $10,000,000 to aid in the support of free common schools, and which shall be apportioned to the several States and Territories according to the number of their illiterate population over ten years of age.

The House then resumed the consideration of the Geneva award bill.

Ice Perils at Sea.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 11.—The barkentine Christabel, has arrived having been 102 days on her passage from Alicante. She was firmly embedded in ice during sixty-three days, and her crew for several weeks were reduced to the most meagre allowance of food. When liberated from the ice off, Placentia Bay, on Monday last, there were three other British vessels (names not ascertained) firmly fastened in the ice pack, from eight to ten miles distant. They all showed signals of distress, and the captain thinks their crews are on the point of starvation. Off Cape Finister the Christabel passed a large iceberg, dismasted and abandoned, and when approaching the Newfoundland coast she came up with the schooner Speed, of Prince Edward's Island, laden with molasses, also abandoned. A telegram to-day states that there are forty-three ships and barks and eight steamers caught in the ice in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, and visible from the highlands of Cape Ray.

News has been received that four men were starved to death in Placentia Bay, in a place inaccessible by sail or steam or road. The unparalleled character of the winter in frost, snow and ice explains the cause of the dismal tragedy.

The steam tug Hercules towed into St. Johns this morning the abandoned bark Huntress, laden with deals and bound for Liverpool.

The Allan mail steamer Newfoundland arrived last night from Halifax. Captain Mylius reports 350 icebergs on his passage to St. Johns. He anticipated dismal consequences to life and shipping property during the fog-laden months of June and July. It is now blowing a terrific gale from the south and there is a heavy Atlantic swell heaving before the storm.

Four steamships arrived last night from the sealing grounds, all having poor luck. Captain Dawe, of the Dundee whaler Thetis, picked up a water cast with other gear, on the Labrador coast, belonging to the Peterhead whaler Alert which sailed last autumn for the purpose of wintering in Cumberland Sound. The probabilities are that the vessel has been crushed in the ice.

The Dublin Assassination.

DUBLIN, May 11.—There have been further arrests in Drogheda, Longford and county Meath in connection with the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke. Three men who were arrested in county Meath have what are supposed to be blood stains on their clothes. The police now discredit the statements of the man who asserted that he had been offered £100 pounds to assist in the murders and who was taken from Havenford-West to Liverpool yesterday.

It is stated that as Right Hon. Michael Morris, Lord Chief Justice, of the Court of Common Pleas and Rt. Hon. Robt. Barrie, fourth clerk of the Court of Queen's Bench, were walking in Phoenix Park on Saturday, a few minutes after the murders were committed and before they knew of them, a rough looking man said to the Lord Chief Justice, "The chief and under Secretary have been murdered. You are the next man spotted."

Writ of Error Granted.

RICHMOND, Va., May 11.—Chief Justice Waite this morning granted a writ of error from the Supreme Court of the United States to the Court of Appeals of Virginia in the case of Antoni versus Greenleaf, City Treasurer of Richmond, the test case recently decided by the Virginia Court of Appeals in which by an equally divided court the new act known as "Coupon Killer number One" was sustained and a mandamus requiring the said City Treasurers to receive coupons for taxes was refused. Wm. L. Royal, representing the English bondholders subsequently filed the writ in the Virginia Court of Appeals and record has been sent to the Supreme Court. All the judges of the Virginia Court united in the certificate to the Supreme Court that "the interest and welfare of the people of Virginia imperatively demand an early decision in the case." It is thought the case will be decided during the coming fall.

An Accommodating Individual.

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—A man named Bumgardner, who is thought to be insane, appeared in Peenfield, Clearfield county, on Monday with a deep gash in his throat. He claims to have overheard three men planning to kill him, and endeavored to spare them the trouble by taking his own life.

Terrible Explosion.

LONDON, May 11, 3 P. M.—Information has just been received here of a terrible explosion of fire damp in the Pluto mine, at the town of Bochum, Westphalia. The bodies of 56 victims of the disaster have thus far been recovered.

Troops for Egypt.

LONDON, May 11.—A dispatch to the Times from Constantinople states that preparations are being made whereby 30,000 men, chiefly from Syria, could be speedily embarked for Egypt.

Financial.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The stock market opened rather weak with prices $\frac{3}{4}$ to 1 per cent lower than at yesterday's close. An advance of $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 per cent took place in the early dealings after which the list reacted $\frac{1}{4}$ to 1 per cent. At 1 o'clock there was a fractional recovery in the general list.

FISHERMEN IN MARYLAND WATERS.

One of the most interesting sights we saw on the whole trip was the seines and the manner of catching fish on the Wicomico. With us the fishermen always procure a couple of poles and tie one to each end of their nets and stick them in the desired place in the evening and let them remain till the next morning. But on the Wicomico they use no poles, but let their nets drift with the current. Each seine is watched by a man who looks so lazy and careless that one would think it makes him miserable to move, but all the while he keeps his eyes on the seine or floats, and when the motion and disturbance of these indicate the presence of a shad he becomes all life and activity in a moment and seldom misses his fish. The whole method of these fishermen with their seines puts one to comparing them to a large spider watching his web, the actions of which they are certainly not unlike.—Cambridge News.

To steal an umbrella is at last a crime. But if a man steals a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup to cure his cough, can it be called a crime?

RED MEN.—The Great Council of Virginia Improved Order of Red Men met in annual session at Richmond yesterday, E. M. Solomon, of Norfolk, Great Sachem, presiding. On a call of the roll all the Great Chiefs were found to be present, with representatives and Past Sachems from twenty-six tribes. The journal of the Great Sachem and the reports of the Great Chief of Records and the Great Representative to the Great Council of the United States were read and referred to the proper committees. Solomon, of Norfolk; Great Chief of Records, C. A. B. Colthroth, of Winchester (re-elected); Great Keeper of Wampum, H. Kinzel, of Winchester (re-elected); Great Representative to the Great Council of the United States, J. Rice Smith, of Berryville.
